

The Gloria

Glorify to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First reading - Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before him and to loose the belts of kings, to open doors before him that gates may not be closed: 'For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I name you, though you do not know me.

I am the LORD, and there is no other, besides me there is no God; I equip you, though you do not know me, that people may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is none besides me; I am the LORD, and there is no other.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ascribe to the Lord glory and power.

Second reading - 1 Thessalonians 1:1-

5b Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace.

We give thanks to God always for all of you, constantly mentioning you in our prayers, remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labour of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life.

Alleluia.

Gospel - Matthew 22:15-21

At that time: The Pharisees went and plotted how to entangle Jesus in his words. And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, 'Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?' But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, 'Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin for the tax.' And they brought him a denarius. And Jesus said to them, 'Whose likeness and inscription is this?' They said, 'Caesar's.' Then he said to them, 'Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow. and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fr Tony Writes...

'Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.'

This is a Denarius* from the reign of the emperor Tiberius, who was emperor at the time of Jesus public ministry, so it would have been a coin like this that Jesus was shown. On the obverse (front) there is an image of Tiberius together with the inscription (barely visible on this example) "TI CAESAR DIVI AVG F AVGVSTVS", which translates as "Tiberius Ceaser, the august son of the divine Augustus". On the reverse is a picture of Tiberius mother, Livia, as the goddess Pax. Thus, the coin was effectively an idol, as it was an image of a god. Indeed, it was because of this that there were moneychangers at the temple, as the idolatrous Roman coins could not be given in offering. (which is one of the reasons Jesus was not pleased to find the moneychangers inside the temple, but that is another story...)

This brings a subtle irony into the story. The Pharisees are carrying an idol to Jesus (who does not have one himself). But more importantly there is a subtle critique of the Romans. While Jesus arguably accepts that taxes are a necessary element of civic society, indeed even perhaps a part of civic duty, yet by distinguishing between Caesar and God Jesus is denying the claim made by the coin.

This does not separate 'religion' from 'politics'. The Sermon on the Mount (among many other texts) clearly shows that Christians should be involved in the transformation of society. Something which has been a part of teaching from the early centuries of the Church, and which finds contemporary expression in the teaching of the popes, most recently in Pope Leo's encyclical on technology and human flourishing, Magnifica Humanitas. Above all, it teaches us that our political commitments are never to take precedence over our commitment to building of Kingdom of God.

The Denarius was given to me by Fr Stephen Purnell. His health is not good now, so please pray for him.*
