This Sunday is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week, in which we trace the events of the last week of Our Lord's earthly life, His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, His betrayal by Judas, His suffering, His death on the Cross and his rising to new life on Easter Sunday. The readings and prayers for this day can be found in the purple books on page 184. The Mass on Palm Sunday starts with a solemn entrance at 6pm and at 8.30am, and with a procession from the Hall at 10am and 11.15am. The Gospel of Our Lord's entry into Jerusalem will be read and the palms and other greenery will be blessed. The first reading is the Song of the Suffering Servant from the prophet Isaiah, and the Gospel is the Passion Narrative from Saint Luke. At the 10am Mass we shall have the short version.

Please follow using the purple books, and the congregation is asked to join in the bits marked 'C', which stands for crowd. At the part where Jesus dies, we kneel in silence for a few moments.

This Sunday afternoon at 3pm there is a reconciliation Service at Saint George's, Hangleton.

Programme for Holy Week.

On Monday and Tuesday, Mass will be at 10am, followed by Confessions.

On Wednesday, known as Spy Wednesday, when Judas looked out for a way to betray him, Mass will be at 10am, followed by Confessions. In the evening, at 6pm, the Chrism Mass takes place at Arundel Cathedral, to which all people of the diocese are invited. At this Mass, Bishop Richard will bless the Oils of Catechumens, Chrism and the Sick for us in the coming year. The first two will be used at the Easter Vigil and on Easter day, during the baptismal liturgy, and for the liturgy of Confirmation. The Oil of the Sick will be used throughout the coming year in administering the Sacrament of the Sick.

On Thursday the Church is closed during the day but will open in good time for the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 8pm, at which we commemorate Jesus's institution of the Eucharist; the Mass is followed by the procession to the Altar of Repose and watching until midnight, when the Church will close. This watching is our staying awake with the Lord on the eve of His Passion, as He requested of His disciples: "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me.... So, could you not keep watch with me for an hour?" (Matthew 26:38/40). If you wish to watch for an hour, these will be a list in the sacristy for you to sign. The prayers and readings will be found on page 199 of the purple books.

On Good Friday there will be Stations of the Cross at 12 noon. These are particularly designed for children of all ages. The Liturgy of the Lord's Passion takes place at 3pm. This is in three parts: Liturgy of the Word, Veneration of the Cross and Holy Communion. The prayers and readings will be found on page 204 of the purple books. The Church will shut at dusk.

Holy Saturday is a dies non, as Christ lies in His tomb and we await the Resurrection. The Church will be shut. Anyone who wishes to go to Confession must call at the Presbytery. There is no 6pm Mass. The Church will open in good time for the Easter Vigil which starts at 9pm outside the Church with the ceremony of the Holy Fire. At the Easter Vigil, Suzannah will be baptised and confirmed, and Liam will be received into the Church and confirmed. In addition, Federica will be confirmed. The prayers and readings will be found on page 223 of the purple books.

On Easter Sunday, Masses will be at the usual times of 8.30am, 10am and 11.15am. The prayers and readings will be found on page 258 of the purple books.

There will be baptisms and First Holy Communion at the latter Mass. On Easter Sunday, from after the 8.30am Mass to after the 11.15am Mass, Mary and Mary will be selling their delicious cakes in aid of the Ukraine.

We are looking for a First Holy Communion Co-ordinator. Jane Noble has done this job for years and now is retiring from the role. We are all very grateful for the splendid job she has done. We hope to appoint a suitably qualified candidate, to work 15 hours a month, and to be paid £16 per hour. The job specification is available if interested parties wish to examine it. (Please email the Parish Priest.) We hope to have someone in place by September. If you know anyone who might be interested in this, please draw their attention to the vacancy.

We have heard the sad news of the death of Angeles Clark, who died at home on 26 March, aged 83. Her funeral service will be here on Friday 22 April at 11am, subject to change. Let us pray for the repose of her soul and for her family at this sad and difficult time for them.

Hall events: Please remember that tea and coffee are available every Sunday after the 10am and 11.15am Masses. Many thanks to all who made the Book Exchange a great success, especially the stalwarts who put things away afterwards. We will have our next Book Exchange in the autumn. On Sunday 8 May we are holding our next Table Top sale. It costs £7 for a large table and £5 for a small table, to be paid in advance. Put the money in an envelope with your name and marked 'Table Top sale' and post through the Presbytery door or hand in at the parish office. At a date to be decided after Easter we are holding a Syrian Market, and we shall hold another exchange of children's toys and equipment.

Don't forget Social Dancing at 8pm on Thursdays to which all are welcome. (There will be no social dancing on 14 April.) On Fridays the Social Club meets in the Hall at 1.30pm to which all are invited. On Friday 22 April, after our Easter break, Grant from the Martlets Hospice is going to come and talk about the very important work of the hospice and how we can all help.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

We have had a very pleasing response from our children for the Platinum Jubilee poster competition. We will frame the three best and hang them in a suitable place, we hope, by next week. We shall inform the young artists in due course. Unfortunately, the banner printing company has told us that the pictures, wonderful as they are, are not of a suitably high resolution for reproduction on a grand scale, so we are going to go with a different design, using photographs of the Queen and the Platinum Jubilee logo.
