A very happy Easter to you all!

Easter tide begins with the Easter Vigil, the most important service of the Church's year at 9pm, when it is dark, on Saturday. We start outside the Church with the ceremony of the Holy Fire. At the Easter Vigil, Suzannah is being baptised and confirmed, and Liam will be received into the Church and confirmed. In addition, Federica will be confirmed. The prayers and readings will be found on page 223 of the purple books. Please note that we will be having the following readings; the First (short form), the Third, the Fifth and the Seventh, followed by the Epistle and the Gospel. The Paschal Candle has been decorated by Sarah Hall.

On Easter Sunday, Masses will be at the usual times of 8.30am, 10am and 11.15am. The prayers and readings will be found on page 258 of the purple books. At the 11.15am Mass Sofia, Lyra, and Francisco will be baptised, while Ruben, Maya and Pilar will be receiving their First Holy Communion. At all Masses we will be having the chance to renew our baptismal promises. The collection at all Easter Masses is one of two (the other being Christmas) which are the parishioner's gift to the parish priest.

On Easter Sunday, from after the 8.30am Mass to after the 11.15am Mass, Mary and Mary will be selling their delicious cakes in aid of the Ukraine.

On Bank Holiday Monday and on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of Easter Week Mass will be at 10am. There will be no Mass on Wednesday as Fr Alexander has to attend a funeral in Kent; and there is no Mass on Thursday as usual.

After Low Sunday, Father Alexander will be away for a few days and Mass will be celebrated by several of the local clergy. Many thanks for their invaluable help. Bank Holiday Monday, 2 May, is going to be a dies non, and the Church will be closed, to enable to sacristan to have a day off. This newsletter will resume publication on Saturday 7 May, to enable the Parish Secretary to have a break.

Liturgical notes

The Sunday after Easter which closes the Easter Octave is known as Low Sunday, and also Divine Mercy Sunday.

Monday 25 April is the feast of Saint Mark, evangelist.

Tuesday 26 April is the feast of Saint George, martyr, patron of England and many other countries besides.

Friday 29 April is the feast of Saint Catherine of Siena.

Saturday 30 April is the feast of Saint Pius V, pope.

Monday 2 May is the feast of Saint Athanasius, bishop and doctor of the Church.

Tuesday 3 May is the feast of Saints Philip and James, apostles.

Wednesday 4 May is the feast of the English Martyrs.

Our Confirmation course begins on Low Sunday, 24 April, at 7pm in the Hall, and the session will last until roughly 9.15pm. Subsequent sessions are at the same time every week. We have 20 candidates. Let us pray for them all and their families. The Bishop will be here to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday 28 May at 11.30am.

We are looking for a First Holy Communion Co-ordinator. Jane Noble has done this job for years and now is retiring from the role. We are all very grateful for the splendid job she has done. We hope to appoint a suitably qualified candidate, to work 15 hours a month, and to be paid £16 per hour. The job specification is available if interested parties wish to examine it. (Please email the Parish Priest.) We hope to have someone in place by September. If you know anyone who might be interested in this, please draw their attention to the vacancy.

Hall events: On Sunday 8 May we are holding our next Table Top sale. It £5 for a small table, to be paid in advance. We have five such tables left. Put the money in an envelope with your name and marked 'Table Top sale' and post through the Presbytery door or hand in at the parish office. On Sunday 15 May after the 11.15am Mass we are holding a Syrian Market. At some future point we shall hold another exchange of children's toys and equipment.

Don't forget Social Dancing at 8pm on Thursdays to which all are welcome. On Fridays the Social Club meets in the Hall at 1.30pm to which all are invited. On Friday 22 April, Grant from the Martlets Hospice is going to come and talk about the very important work of the hospice and how we can all help.

If you are a reader, a Eucharistic minister, on duty at Mass, please come into the sacristy for prayers before the Mass begins at about seven minutes prior to the start.

We are collecting donations for the Food Bank. Please leave your donation in the tub inside the door of the Outer Sacristy. If locked, by the door. We have bought some new tubs and new boxes for donations.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

I am looking for a fun, kind and compassionate person to be a support worker for two young ladies with Down's Syndrome (25 and 26). The role includes nights and is Brighton based. The hours vary but generally it would be from 1.00 pm until 10.00 am, Monday to Friday. It could also be a full time position. The girls are a lot of fun and have bubbly personalities. They love singing, dancing and acting. I would like to find someone who has lots of energy, is fun and kind natured and very organised. The girls have a busy schedule and need help with their time management. The role includes: helping the girls with their weekly shop, keeping the house tidy, cooking - and getting the girls to help cook - taking them to and from different activities and work places. Generally building up their self-confidence and life skills so that they can become as independent as possible. Driver essential. Pay to be discussed. If you are interested in this position please email me a cover letter along with your cv. I look forward to hearing from you. Rosa Monckton rm@rosamonckton.com
